4. New Business – Motion, Discussion and Voting may be taken on all items:

A. Appoint Kristin Moss as Director of Marketing and Communications for ENC - Discuss Kristin Moss' proposed role and responsibilities as Director of Marketing and Communications. Kristin Moss is a long-time resident of Amestoy Estates, where she has lived for 10 years and developed a deep passion for the Encino community. As a mom of three, she previously supported the neighborhood through her children's attendance at Encino Charter Elementary and now seeks new ways to enhance the area. With over 20 years of experience as a marketing executive, she has led creative and social teams at Disney, Riot Games, HBO Max, and Amazon Prime Video. She will have something for us to look at by Monday or Tuesday. Discussion and Possible Action.

B. Discussion and possible action to hire Aaron Devandry for a trial period of up to 6 months. Fees are $100 per month to handle ENC social media posts to facebook, Instagram, X, ENC website, and Nextdoor, website posts and various outreach email blasts for committee meetings and events. Aaron will monitor various posts from government organizations and offices and post information pertinent to the ENC community outreach. More info about Aaron's work Here

C. September Newsletter: Discussion on the content for the September edition of "The Oak Tree Flyer," the ENC newsletter. Following the positive feedback from the last issue, we will brainstorm ideas and gather engaging content for the upcoming release. Members are encouraged to share suggestions to ensure the newsletter includes key updates and topics of community interest. Discussion and possible action to finalize the content. Discussion and Possible Action.

C. Future events - TDiscussion on future events, building on the success of the recent movie night. We will consider organizing another event, potentially another movie night, towards the end of October or the beginning of November. Discussion will include event planning details and the possibility of a MOTION to proceed with the event. Discussion and possible MOTION.

E. Public Safety Events in October - Discussion on supporting the Public Safety Committee's outreach efforts for the upcoming burglary-focused public safety event in October. We will explore how the Outreach Committee can assist in promoting the event, increasing community awareness, and ensuring strong attendance to enhance public safety education in Encino.

5. Committee members comment on non-agenda items.

Adjournment.

SB 411 Updates:

In the event of a disruption that prevents the eligible legislative body from broadcasting the meeting to members of the public using the call-in option or internet-based service option, or in the event of a disruption within the eligible legislative body's control that prevents members of the public from offering public comments using the call-in option or internet-based service option, the eligible legislative body shall take no further action on items appearing on the meeting agenda until public access to the meeting via the call-in option or internet-based service option is restored. Actions taken on agenda items during a disruption that prevents the eligible legislative body from broadcasting the meeting may be challenged pursuant to Section 54960.1.

(C) The eligible legislative body shall not require public comments to be submitted in advance of the meeting and shall provide an opportunity for the public to address the legislative body and offer comments in real time.

(D) Notwithstanding Section 54953.3, an individual desiring to provide public comment through the use of an internet website, or other online platform, not under the control of the eligible legislative body, that requires registration to log in to a teleconference may be required to register as required by the third-party internet website or online platform to participate.

(E) (i) An eligible legislative body that provides a timed public comment period for each agenda item shall not close the public comment period for the agenda item, or the opportunity to register, pursuant to subparagraph (D), to provide public comment until that timed public comment period has elapsed.

(ii) An eligible legislative body that does not provide a timed public comment period, but takes public comment separately on each agenda item, shall allow a reasonable amount of time per agenda item to allow public members the opportunity to provide public comment, including time for members of the public to register pursuant to subparagraph (D), or otherwise be recognized for the purpose of providing public comment.

(iii) An eligible legislative body that provides a timed general public comment period that does not correspond to a specific agenda item shall not close the public comment period or the opportunity to register, pursuant to subparagraph (D), until the timed general public comment period has elapsed.
